1 SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH; FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2012; 2:30 P.M.

2 PROCEEDINGS

3 THE COURT: Good afternoon everybody. My name is
4 Dustin Pead, Magistrate Judge, District of Utah. Today's 5 date is October 19th, 2012. We're hear in the matter of the 6 United States of America vs. Anatoliy N. Baranovich,
7 2:12-MJ-301, assigned to Magistrate Judge Warner. The 8 government is represented by Mr. Michael Kennedy, with the 9 United States Attorney Mr. Barlow. The defense is 10 represented by Mr. Hunt.

11 We do have a contract interpreter who is assisting
12 us today.

13 Ma'am, I'm sorry. I forgot to get your name.
14 Would you please give us your name for the record.

15 THE INTERPRETER: Dina Hall.

16 THE COURT: Thank you very much for being here. I
17 appreciate it.

18 Gentlemen, we're here on a detention hearing.
19 I've had a chance to review very briefly a Pretrial Service
20 report.

21 Mr. Hunt, have you seen that report as well?

22 MR. HUNT: I have, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Kennedy?

24 MR. KENNEDY: Yes, Judge.

25 THE COURT: I've also been provided some

1 additional information based on your efforts over the past
2 couple of hours. So it's supplemented to a degree.

3 Mr. Kennedy, you indicated before we went on the
4 record and informed me that you had let Mr. Hunt know you
5 may present some witnesses. How would you like to proceed
6 today?

7 MR. KENNEDY: Your Honor, I do have one witness
8 that we would like to present that has information that we 9 think is not reflected in the pretrial services report but 10 we think is highly relevant to Your Honor's decision with 11 regard to whether the defendant constitutes a risk of 12 nonappearance or a danger to the community.

13 THE COURT: Would you prefer to present the 14 witnesses and then make your argument at the end, then?

15 MR. KENNEDY: If that's convenient to the Court.

16 THE COURT: That's fine.

17 Mr. Hunt, you were aware of this witness?

18 MR. HUNT: I was aware of the witness, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Great.

20 Mr. Kennedy, who is it?

21 MR. KENNEDY: The United States calls Cameron
22 Smilie.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Smilie, would you please come on 24 up. There's a witness stand right here to my right. If you
25 could stand next to that chair and raise your right hand.

1 CAMERON SMILIE,

2 Having been duly sworn, was examined

3 and testified as follows:

4 THE COURT: Thank you very much. Would you please
5 be seated.

6 Mr. Kennedy, the witness is yours.

7 MR. KENNEDY: Thank you.

8 DIRECT EXAMINATION

9 BY MR. KENNEDY:

10 Q Would you please again state your name and spell it for 11 the record.

12 A My name is Cameron Smilie, special agent.

13 C-a-m-e-r-o-n, S-m-i-l-i-e.

14 Q Where are you employed?

15 A FBI.

16 Q What is your position?

17 A I'm a special agent.

18 Q How long have you had that position?

19 A Approximately two years.

20 Q What are your general duties? What's your current 21 assignment?

22 A Primarily I'm assigned to the domestic terrorism squad
23 of the joint terrorism task force. My collateral duty is 24 airport liaison agent for Idaho, Montana and Utah.

25 Q And you've been to the FBI Academy?

1 A Yes.

2 Q As part of your duties do you respond to criminal
3 offenses or alleged criminal offenses that occur at the 4 airport or in the special aircraft jurisdiction of the U.S.?

5 A Yes.

6 Q I want to direct your attention back to October 15th to 7 16th. Were you asked to respond to an incident on that 8 date?

9 A Yes.

10 Q About what time?

11 A Approximately 11:30 p.m.

12 Q Where did you go?

13 A I responded directly to the Salt Lake International
14 Airport police department.

15 Q What was the general nature of the complaint?

16 A My dispatch informed me that a passenger had opened the 17 door on an aircraft while in flight. I also spoke with the 18 airport police department that informed me that the door had 19 been opened shortly after touching down.

20 Q You, in fact, investigated part of this offense
21 yourself?

22 A Correct.

23 Q You're also relying on reports from other officers and 24 individuals?

25 A Yes.

1 Q Now was there an altercation involving -- first of all,
2 do you recognize the subject of that case?

3 A I do.

4 Q Do you see him in the courtroom?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Would you just identify him for us?

7 A He's right there.

8 MR. HUNT: We would stipulate to identification.

9 BY MR. KENNEDY:

10 Q Was there an altercation on board the aircraft --
11 physical altercation?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Was it is necessary to subdue the defendant?

14 A It was.

15 MR. HUNT: Your Honor, may I request -- I know
16 you're relying on others' information, but could I request
17 that he identify the source of the information?

18 THE COURT: Could you lay a little bit more
19 foundation, Mr. Kennedy, please.

20 BY MR. KENNEDY:

21 Q Who did you -- did you conduct any interviews with 22 regard to what happened on the airplane?

23 A I conducted four personal interviews and collected
24 approximately ten witness statements and spoke to airport
25 police.

1 Q Did you interview people that were directly involved in
2 this physical altercation?

3 A I interviewed the people directly involved and people
4 around the incident.

5 Q How many -- was it necessary to subdue -- physically
6 subdue the defendant on board the aircraft?

7 A Yes.

8 MR. HUNT: Again, could we have -- when we get 9 into specific facts, could we identify the name of the 10 specific person with whom they interviewed as to those 11 facts, some foundation laid?

12 THE COURT: Could you follow up that question with 13 asking him to identify who explained that that took place,
14 then, Mr. Kennedy.

15 BY MR. KENNEDY:

16 Q Who did you specifically interview with regard to 17 subduing the defendant on the aircraft?

18 A The flight attendant, Marilyn Isler, and the individual
19 who ended up subduing the subject, Patrick Tominey.

20 Q I'm sorry?

21 A Tominey.

22 Q Tominey?

23 A Tominey. T-o-m-i-n-e-y.

24 THE COURT: He was a passenger?

25 THE WITNESS: He was a passenger, yes.

1 BY MR. KENNEDY:

2 Q Were you told how many people were required to subdue
3 the defendant on the aircraft?

4 A Originally five passengers attempted to subdue the
5 subject. Patrick Tominey was the sixth.

6 Q Did he ultimately succeed in subduing him?

7 A He did.

8 Q Are you aware of any altercations -- physical
9 altercations involving the defendant after his arrest?

10 A I'm aware of two.

11 Q Were you personally present for any of these?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Please describe that one for us.

14 A Prior to interviewing Mr. Baranovich, he was seen in 15 his holding cell breathing very heavily, seemed to be
16 laboring. Paramedics were called from airport police
17 department, responding from the fire station near the 18 airport. When they responded, he became extremely agitated
19 and began to speak with myself and supervisory Special Agent
20 Viti. At that time we decided to interview him.

21 After the interview, while we were searching --

22 Q Before we get to that point, first of all, was he given
23 his Miranda rights?

24 A He was.

25 Q Did he waive those?

1 A He waived those.

2 Q Were you assisted in talking with him, you and Special
3 Agent Viti assisted in speaking with him by somebody that
4 speaks Ukrainian or Russian?

5 A Correct.

6 Q So the responses that you got from him came to you via
7 a translator?

8 A That is correct.

9 Q That translator, is he or she certified by the FBI to 10 translate?

11 A He is.

12 Q When you interviewed him, we might get to the substance
13 of what he said in a little bit, but did he appear to you to 14 be coherent?

15 A Yes.

16 Q What was his demeanor?

17 A He was fairly calm, fairly relaxed, somewhat worried
18 about what he was -- who -- what he was doing and why he was 19 detained, but he was relaxed and calm.

20 Q And without getting into too many of the details at 21 this point, did there come a point where that demeanor
22 changed?

23 A Yes.

24 Q When his demeanor changed, how did it change?

25 A He became extremely agitated, became violent, started

1 striking the holding cell window with his hands, feet, arms.
2 I couldn't see exactly what he was hitting it with, but I
3 could hear him screaming and I could hear the bangs against 4 the glass.

5 Q What was done in response to that?

6 A Airport police opened the cell door. Since we had
7 removed his handcuffs and placed his hands in front of him
8 to interview him, to allow him to feel more comfortable,
9 airport police opened the cell door in order to replace his 10 hands behind his back and restrain him to the bench that he 11 was sitting on. Two airport police officers entered the 12 cell, another entered the cell behind them, and I entered
13 just the threshold of the cell and began to tussle with him.

14 Q And did he continue to fight all of the officers,
15 including yourself?

16 A He did, though I wasn't directly engaged with him
17 because of the size of the cell. There were three large
18 officers and him in this very tiny cell. Although he wasn't
19 able to actually strike the officers because of how small it
20 was, he was attempting to rip the officers' hands away,
21 somewhat escape from the officers in the cell, struggle any
22 way he could from what the officers wanted him to do.

23 He was given commands by the linguist from the 24 officers, and he refused.

25 Q Was he ultimately subdued?

1 A He was ultimately subdued. His hands were cuffed
2 behind his back and he was restrained to the bench.

3 Q At that point did he answer any further questions?

4 A No.

5 Q Was he taken to jail?

6 A He was.

7 Q What jail was he taken to?

8 A Davis County jail.

9 Q Have you been made aware of any altercations involving
10 him at the jail?

11 A Yes.

12 Q How were you made aware of those?

13 A Approximately an hour and a half after I booked him at 14 Davis County jail, I was called by the duty sergeant who 15 informed me that he had become extremely violent and 16 agitated and actually asked to -- and challenged the 17 officers to fights, to enter his cell.

18 Q What's the name of the officer that gave you this
19 information?

20 A I don't recall the sergeant's name.

21 Q Did you subsequently get a report of exactly what 22 happened?

23 A I'm in the process now.

24 Q Let me rephrase that. Were you subsequently told by 25 officers involved what happened?

1 A Yes.

2 Q Who told you that?

3 A The on-duty sergeant, the captain, and the lieutenant
4 at the jail.

5 Q And what did they tell you happened?

6 A They described to me that he, after being placed in a
7 holding cell by himself -- because of the violence he 8 displayed at the airport, he was placed in a cell by 9 himself, at which time he decided to remove all of his 10 clothes and started to attempt to break the glass on the 11 cell door with his elbows. He succeeded in breaking some 12 glass, causing cuts on his elbows and bleeding all
13 throughout the cell.

14 Q How did officers respond to that?

15 A They attempted to enter the cell, and he moved to the 16 back of the cell and challenged them and took a fighting
17 stance.

18 Q Then what happened?

19 A The officers backed out and requested a cell extraction
20 team, which did respond. The cell extraction team entered
21 the cell and attempted to restrain him. They were required
22 to use a taser to restrain him further, which they used six
23 times. I was told that the subject continued to fight
24 through the taser, at which time the cert team -- the cell
25 extraction team backed out of the cell again. And they

1 contacted myself to ascertain whether or not he was going to
2 appear if he was scheduled for initial appearance that day
3 because they were considering using Haldol or a chemical 4 restraint.

5 Q Was that ultimately used?

6 A They did use Haldol. He was restrained some.

7 Q Did you have a subsequent encounter with him where he
8 displayed aggressive --

9 A Yes.

10 Q What happened?

11 A I was asked by the U.S. Attorney's Office to go up to 12 Davis County jail and assess whether or not the Haldol may 13 have affected him to the point where he couldn't appear for 14 an initial appearance. So I went up there. They opened --
15 we opened the cell door, he spoke with a linguist that he
16 was familiar with and myself, and he agreed to come and show
17 for his initial appearance and that he was coherent and he 18 understood what I was saying and knew what we were going to 19 do.

20 Q This was on October 16th, correct?

21 A Correct.

22 Q Then what happened?

23 A As he agreed to come to the initial appearance, we told
24 him that we would have to shackle him and restrain his hands
25 and put some clothes on him. He refused to put clothes on

1 or refused to have any shackles. He informed me that he
2 would not go -- he would not go if he had to go like that,
3 referring to the handcuffs. At that time we decided, since
4 it took an entire cell extraction team to restrain him once,
5 it was too dangerous to try and transport him here by 6 ourselves.

7 Q Now were you subsequently able to transport him the 8 next day?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And were there any problems that day?

11 A No.

12 Q Let me get back to ask a couple of questions about the 13 interview that you conducted with Mr. Baranovich. Did you
14 ask him any questions with regard to his residency,
15 nationality, immigration status?

16 A Yes.

17 Q What did he tell you?

18 A He informed me that he was a permanent resident and he 19 had entered the United States in 1997 as a refugee.

20 Q From what country?

21 A Ukraine.

22 Q Did you ask him the circumstances -- about the 23 circumstances of his refugee status?

24 A Yes.

25 Q What did he tell you?

1 A He informed us that he was religiously persecuted for
2 his religious beliefs as a Pentecostal Baptist.

3 Q Did you ask any follow-up questions?

4 A I asked him directly after that response whether or not
5 that was a lie or fraudulent, and he informed me that it
6 was.

7 Q When he was arrested at the Salt Lake International
8 Airport, where was he traveling from?

9 A He was traveling from Kiev, Ukraine to Portland,
10 Oregon.

11 Q He had intermediate stops along the way?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Where were those stops?

14 A He connected -- he flew from Kiev to Amsterdam,
15 Amsterdam to Boston, and Boston to Salt Lake.

16 Q Did you ask him any questions about what he was doing
17 in the Ukraine?

18 A I did.

19 Q What did he tell you?

20 A He told me that he was on a 50-day vacation --
21 approximately 50-day vacation visiting his sister in the 22 Ukraine, in Boiko.

23 Q Did he tell you any additional purpose with regard to 24 that vacation?

25 A Yes. He also told me that he had gone to the Ukraine

1 planning to pay and lay a foundation on a house that he was
2 building in the Ukraine.

3 Q Did he have any cash on him when he was arrested?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Where was that cash located?

6 A In a fanny pack on his person.

7 Q What -- how much cash?

8 THE INTERPRETER: Your Honor, just one second.

9 The interpreter needs clarification. A fanny pack?

10 THE WITNESS: It's a bag on his waist.

11 THE COURT: Thank you.

12 BY MR. KENNEDY:

13 Q Was there U.S. currency in there?

14 A $6,534.01 in U.S. currency.

15 Q Did you find any ATM receipts or bank receipts?

16 A I found one ATM receipt reflecting a deposit -- or a
17 removal of $5,000 from a savings account -- I believe it was 18 a savings account.

19 Q When approximately was that dated?

20 A August -- late August.

21 Q And did he have any other significant currency on him?

22 A He had some Ukrainian kopecks and a Panamanian quarter.

23 MR. HUNT: A Panamanian what's that?

24 THE COURT: Quarter?

25 THE WITNESS: Quarter. I'm not exactly sure of

1 the currency.

2 BY MR. KENNEDY:

3 Q A coin?

4 A Coin.

5 Q Was any mention -- first of all, did you ask him the 6 purpose of that money?

7 A I did.

8 Q What did he say?

9 A He said that he was going to use it to pay for his --
10 for the vacation and also to lay a foundation on his house.

11 Q Did he say anything else with respect to that money?

12 A No.

13 Q Did he make any offers with regard to that money?

14 A Yes.

15 Q What -- tell us about that.

16 A While he was being seen by the paramedics at the 17 airport police department directly outside of his cell, he
18 offered to pay the airport police department to let him go.

19 Q And --

20 MR. HUNT: Could I get some foundation on that 21 further, please?

22 THE COURT: Sure.

23 BY MR. KENNEDY:

24 Q Were you present for that?

25 A Yes.

1 Q You heard that yourself?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And you heard that through the translator?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And did he make any further similar offers?

6 A He again offered, but he offered to myself and
7 supervisory Special Agent Viti, he offered to pay us the 8 money we had found in his bag, his fanny pack, offered to 9 pay us to let him go.

10 Q How did you respond to that?

11 A We told him that we didn't work like that. We weren't
12 going to take that offer.

13 Q Where is the cash right now?

14 A It's held in my evidence room at the Salt Lake City
15 FBI.

16 Q Was a search conducted of his checked baggage or his 17 carry-on baggage?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Either or both?

20 A Both.

21 Q And was that pursuant to consent?

22 A Yes, it was.

23 Q Would you please tell the Court, just in a general
24 form, what was found in his luggage.

25 A In his luggage I found four packages, approximately

1 softball size, wrapped in paper bag, plastic bag and clear
2 tape some type of pharmaceutical, some type of blister
3 packaged pill with Russian or Ukrainian writing on it. In 4 the other packages -- in these four packages were also
5 bottles of rust colored liquid and other pills that were 6 unidentifiable.

7 Q Is the process ongoing to try to identify those items?

8 A Yes.

9 Q What else was found?

10 A I found some pictures, some family pictures. I found
11 several boxes of chocolate, several bags of cologne and 12 perfume, a pair of women's underwear, a wig or hair
13 extension. I found 19 Ukrainian passports, none of which 14 were Mr. Baranovich. I found his cell phone.

15 Q Let me ask you, did you ask any questions to him about 16 his criminal history, whether he had a criminal history?

17 A Yes.

18 Q What did he tell you?

19 A He told me that he had no criminal history in the 20 United States. I asked him if he had a criminal history or 21 had been to prison in the Ukraine. He told me that he was 22 arrested once in the Ukraine for fighting at a discotheque.
23 He told me that he was arrested once again in the Ukraine
24 for theft of a motorcycle, for which he received two years
25 in prison.

1 Q You mentioned earlier that at some point he, during the
2 interview, he became extremely agitated and violent. At 3 what point was that?

4 A Not during the interview.

5 Q Not during the interview. During the process at the 6 jail?

7 A Yes.

8 Q At the airport?

9 A Correct.

10 MR. HUNT: Are we talking about the first
11 interview where you were present or was there a second
12 interview?

13 THE WITNESS: There was only one interview.

14 BY MR. KENNEDY:

15 Q Again, to be clear, what we're talking about right now,
16 you were actually present and observed this?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Let me just ask it directly. You said you found a
19 number of Ukrainian passports?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Did you pull those out of his luggage?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Did you show them to him?

24 A I didn't outwardly show them to him, but where his cell
25 was situated, he could see me searching his bags.

1 Q What was his reaction?

2 A He became extremely violent. He started to pray. What
3 he was saying was being translated. I was being told that
4 he was praying. He started to bang on the glass and thrash
5 around. This is the incident that I described earlier.

6 MR. KENNEDY: May I have just one second, Judge?

7 THE COURT: Yes.

8 MR. KENNEDY: Just a couple other questions.

9 BY MR. KENNEDY:

10 Q The passports that were found, would you please
11 describe them for the Court.

12 A As I said, they were all Ukrainian passports. There
13 were three males. The overwhelming majority of the 14 passports were generally younger females.

15 Q What is the general age range on the passports?

16 A Between 20 and early thirties.

17 Q And did they show any indication in them of travel?

18 A Some of them had very little travel, but many of them
19 had extensive travel. Some of them actually ran out of room
20 for stamps -- visa stamps.

21 MR. KENNEDY: No further questions, Judge.

22 THE COURT: Mr. Hunt.

23 MR. HUNT: One second, Your Honor.

1                           CROSS-EXAMINATION

2 BY MR. HUNT:

3 Q     Mr. Smilie -- Agent Smilie, in the beginning of your
4 testimony you were told, if I understand, that the plane was 5 in flight, but you learned from somebody that the plane was 6 actually touched down when this incident occurred?

7 A     Yes.

8 Q     And would that have been through the flight staff again
9 that you referenced who you interviewed?

10 A    No.

11 Q    Who told you that the plane had actually touched down
12 at that point?

13 A    Airport police.

14 Q    Do you recall the names of the airport police that you
15 interviewed?

16 A    Sergeant Grundell, I believe it's G-r-u-n-d-e-l-l, and 17 Officer Tyson Jones.

18 Q    Now during any of your interviews that you participated
19 in at the jail, were you aware of others or yourself that 20 taped interviews with Mr. Baranovich?

21 A    Interviews were not taped.

22                           MR. KENNEDY: Your Honor, I want to object to this
23 on relevance of whether they were taped.

24                           THE COURT: Mr. Hunt, your argument on relevance.

25                           MR. HUNT: I will move on.

1 BY MR. HUNT:

2 Q You said there were ten statements that you took?

3 A Approximately ten statements.

4 Q Approximately. And this is where I was a little bit
5 confused. I will jump to this one instead. You were aware,
6 you stated, two altercations had occurred after the incident
7 on the airplane?

8 A Yes.

9 Q From what I gather the first one would have been the 10 one in your presence at the airport?

11 A Uh-huh. (Affirmative)

12 Q After you were called there. And from what I gather,
13 you were -- it was apparent that prior to you arriving after 14 the initial subduing, which was quite significant, on the 15 airplane, that he remained calm until you got there and even 16 until you were there for some point in time, correct?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And what other agents were present at the time that 19 this second incident occurred where you -- not second, the 20 first incident you observed where he became anxious again?

21 A Supervisory Special Agent Linda Viti.

22 Q Just the two of you?

23 A That's it.

24 Q And at the time that you conducted your interview he
25 was coherent?

1 A Yes.

2 Q He had a calm demeanor?

3 A Fairly calm. We were providing him a glass of water.

4 He said he felt sick and thirsty, so we gave him a glass of 5 water and he relaxed.

6 Q Did he discuss the fact that he had drunk significant
7 amounts of alcohol on the plane?

8 A Yes -- on the flight?

9 Q Yes.

10 A No.

11 Q How did he refer to his drinking or consuming of 12 alcohol to you?

13 A Well, there was a long discussion about how much
14 alcohol he had drank over the last 50 some days in the 15 Ukraine. We asked specifically how much alcohol he had 16 drank in transit from Kiev to Salt Lake City. He didn't 17 remember specific amounts, but it was each stop he may 18 have -- I think he may have had -- he thinks he could have 19 had a couple of beers. He said he may have had one glass of 20 water and one glass of wine on the flight to Salt Lake City.

21 Q Did anyone conduct any testing -- alcohol testing?

22 A I was told that Davis County jail conducted a PBD,
23 which I'm not exactly sure the technical term for that, but
24 they said he had no alcohol in his system.

25 Q Do you know how long after the incident that was?

1 A Probably about seven or eight hours.

2 Q And you stated that there was a second incident that
3 you were aware of that occurred at the jail when they
4 attempted to cuff him to bring him to court?

5 A Yes, sir.

6 Q And --

7 A Actually that wasn't when they attempted to take him to 8 court. It just happened.

9 Q It just happened?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Do you know how long after his arrival that that 12 occurred or was it upon arrival?

13 A Maybe about an hour.

14 Q So this was closely after being placed in the Davis
15 County jail?

16 A Yes.

17 Q When it came time to bring him to court, are you aware
18 of what his demeanor was at that time?

19 A Yes.

20 Q What was that?

21 A He was obviously a little agitated from his encounter
22 with Davis County jail. He recognized myself and the 23 linguist that had dealt with him earlier. Prior to that, I
24 was told he wouldn't allow anybody to even open the door
25 without a fight, and he opened the door and spoke with us.

1 Q Did he show you respect at that time?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And you say he did recognize you?

4 A Yes, I think so.

5 Q And so you were able to bring him to court for his 6 initial appearance?

7 A No.

8 Q At that time you were not able to bring him?

9 A No. He refused to place handcuffs or any type of 10 restraints, or his clothing.

11 Q Were you there when they brought him to court?

12 A I went the next day and brought him to court.

13 Q Describe what happened at that time.

14 A He was very cooperative, very quiet. The only thing I
15 can remember that stood out in my mind from the entire 16 transit is he soiled himself, and that was it.

17 Q Did he recognize you at that time -- and this would
18 have been on the 16th, if I'm not mistaken?

19 A That would have been the 17th.

20 Q The 17th?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Did he recognize you at that time?

23 A I don't know. I didn't have a linguist present.

24 Q Okay. But he did not fight you?

25 A No. He was already placed in the van when I got there.

1 Q Have you been made aware of any other incidents that
2 occurred at the jail since he was brought and was appointed
3 counsel?

4 A No.

5 Q Would it surprise you -- would you have heard of any
6 other incidents that occurred?

7 A I'm sure I would have, yes.

8 Q Now the ATM receipt that you discussed was a removal of 9 money?

10 A I believe so, either from a savings account to a
11 checking account or cash. I can't --

12 Q And you stated at this time when you got -- now to the 13 first time, he offered you money?

14 A The first time he offered the airport police officers
15 that were standing next to him, and the paramedic.

16 Q Are you aware of how police arrests work in Ukraine at 17 all?

18 A No. I've never been there. I'm sure it's --

19 Q When you got permission to search his bag, did you
20 receive written consent?

21 A Verbal and written.

22 Q Verbal and written. Was any of that taped or was it
23 just --

24 A No, it's written.

25 Q These medications, did you field test any of these

1 medications you saw for any drugs?

2 A I'm not trained to field test anything.

3 Q Would you have recognized if any -- have you been
4 trained to identify any type of illicit drug in your 5 training?

6 A I have.

7 Q Did any of these drugs appear to you immediately to be
8 some type of illicit, i.e., cocaine, meth?

9 A No.

10 Q Marijuana?

11 A No.

12 Q You said some of these were in blister packages?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Which would seem to be professionally prepared with 15 some type of medication? Yes?

16 A Yes. I'm not aware of how they were prepared in the 17 Ukraine.

18 Q Have you had any follow-up with the Ukrainian 19 consulate? Have you discussed this with anyone there?

20 A I notified the Ukrainian consulate via facsimile in 21 Washington, D.C.

22 Q And are you aware of any contacts that have occurred
23 between the Ukrainian consulate and Mr. Baranovich?

24 A Mr. Baranovich, no.

25 Q Have agents visited the Baranovics' home, are you

1 aware?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Did you receive any information from those individuals
4 when you visited the home?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Could you describe what they told you?

7 A The interview they conducted, I believe the agent asked
8 if his father had been drinking, binge drinking. He said he 9 probably had been, he had been on vacation. He asked him if 10 he had any mental issues. His son said -- I was told his 11 son said that he wasn't aware of any mental issues. He 12 asked his son if -- the agent asked his son if there was 13 anything that his father may be involved with, have done, or 14 think that he may be in trouble for causing him to act the 15 way he was acting, referring to the violence that he 16 displayed. His son said -- didn't answer the question. He 17 said no. That's it. That's all I know of the interview.

18 Q Implicit in this discussion was that it was certainly 19 identified that this was Mr. Baranovich's home, he lived
20 there?

21 A Yes, that's what --

22 Q This was his wife you were speaking to?

23 A No, his son.

24 Q His son?

25 A Correct.

1 Q But that he had a wife who lived there with him also?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And was there any discussion about whether he was 4 employed?

5 A Between?

6 Q These agents that were there.

7 A I don't know.

8 Q Have you spoken to the son?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And was that a different discussion than what you just 11 described or did you have a -- what was your discussion with 12 his son? What was his name first?

13 A His name I believe is Roman. Mr. Baranovich asked us
14 to call his wife, so we did, from the interview room. The 15 linguist spoke with his wife for a very short time, and his
16 son took over the phone and requested to speak to an English
17 speaking agent. I took the phone and informed Roman of what 18 had occurred on the aircraft, or I had been told had 19 occurred on the aircraft. I informed him that I would be 20 arresting him for those violations. And at that time I told
21 him I would be taking him to Salt Lake County Adult
22 Detention Center. I ended up taking him to Davis County
23 obviously.

24 I asked him had his father been on vacation. The same
25 answers were provided as to the agents in Portland, and

1 asked him if he had any mental issues, which he said he
2 doesn't know but he doesn't think so.

3 MR. HUNT: No further questions at this time.

4 Thank you.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Kennedy.

6 MR. KENNEDY: Just a couple of quick follow-up
7 questions.

8 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

9 BY MR. KENNEDY:

10 Q Did you conduct any interviews with the flight crew as 11 to Mr. Baranovich's demeanor prior to the incident on board
12 the aircraft?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Who did you interview?

15 A Marilyn Isler, the flight attendant in his section.

16 Q Did she describe his demeanor to you during the flight?

17 A Yes.

18 Q What was that demeanor?

19 A She described him as calm, respectful, and she actually
20 described him as gentle.

21 Q And when you talked with the -- when you or the agents
22 in Portland talked with the family up in Portland, were they 23 cooperative?

24 A Yes.

25 MR. KENNEDY: Nothing further.

1 MR. HUNT: No further questions, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Thank you.

3 I did just have one question. Have you done any 4 research into the identities of the individuals whose
5 passports were found in the luggage?

6 THE WITNESS: Yes.

7 THE COURT: What have you been able to discover?

8 THE WITNESS: I have identified that three of the 9 individuals are shown to live in the United States or at 10 least be present in the United States at some point. I've 11 seen that one of them has a full Social Security number, one
12 in Illinois, one in New York and one in Oregon -- in 13 Fairview, Oregon. The others I have done preliminary checks
14 with Interpol, which have come back negative for anything.

15 THE COURT: Gentlemen, did that bring up anything
16 else for you? Mr. Kennedy?

17 MR. KENNEDY: No, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Hunt?

19 MR. HUNT: Were any of these passports expired?

20 THE WITNESS: I don't know. I didn't look at the 21 expiration.

22 THE COURT: Thank you, Agent Smilie.

23 Mr. Kennedy, was that the only witness you were 24 contemplating?

25 MR. KENNEDY: Yes, Your Honor.

1                   THE COURT: All right. Let's take some argument
2 from you, Mr. Kennedy, and then we'll go to Mr. Hunt.

3                   MR. KENNEDY: Your Honor, we believe that the
4 facts that are before the Court show both that the defendant
5 is a danger and is a risk of nonappearance. On the danger
6 front, he appeared to have extremely violent tendencies, is 7 able to -- apparently able to turn that on and off at will,
8 and can become very violent, and we do think that that
9 presents a danger. We also -- but, frankly, I think more
10 important is the risk of nonappearance.

11                  He has significant ties outside of the United
12 States. He has no ties to this jurisdiction. He travels to 13 the Ukraine. He apparently has no fear of returning to the 14 Ukraine, despite having claimed refugee status. He was 15 planning on building a house in Ukraine, at least according 16 to his own statements. He has financial resources to permit
17 travel. He has -- he has certainly access to passports that 18 would facilitate that travel, either legitimate or false
19 passports.

20                  He certainly has shown an interest in not being in 21 custody. He attempted to bribe officers to let him go. He
22 reacted extremely violently when evidence of these passports
23 was discovered and he was made aware that it was discovered.

24                  He has -- he has admitted or stated that, in fact,
25 his refugee status was gained fraudulently.

1           So we do think all of these factors make him a
2 severe risk of nonappearance should he be released pending
3 the outcome of these charges.

4           THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Kennedy.

5           Mr. Hunt.

6           MR. HUNT: Your Honor, I think that the evidence
7 shows that this is a specific incident that occurred. I
8 dispute Mr. Kennedy's analysis of a turning on and off
9 switch of Mr. Baranovich. I believe that the best evidence
10 of that is the fact that as soon as he is aware of somebody
11 and recognizes them, his attitude completely changes. His 12 fright occurs when he was -- first off, the incident itself,
13 but, secondly, when people he doesn't know are doing
14 something to him, we're not sure if he's coherent at that 15 point. And there's two incidents that occurred then, one
16 shortly after he arrives at the jail and then shortly before
17 he's put in cells both times. Every time he's confronted
18 with someone that he recognizes, including Special Agent
19 Smilie, he's fine, someone that he recognizes and he's 20 comfortable with.

21           From the date that he has been appointed counsel
22 and with the assistance of interpretation, he has been 23 mellow, calm. You've been able to identify his demeanor in 24 court today. This demeanor is consistent with what I've 25 been meeting with him from earlier today. It's consistent

1 with what occurred in the last court hearing. And he
2 recognizes and he is fine. His incidents occur when he did
3 not. This might lead into what happened in the incident
4 itself, but I do think that this is a specific incident
5 thing tied to some significant paranoia.

6 I don't believe that he is a risk of danger to
7 other individuals or we would have seen -- he's been here
8 for seven years, we would have seen something in the form of 9 some other type of ag assault, or assault or aggression,
10 he's turned this switch on and off before. It doesn't
11 exist.

12 And these are -- and you can specifically identify 13 the times when, bam, it happens this time when he's thrown
14 into a jail and he's confused and there's not anyone there
15 telling him what's going on and things don't happen.

16 Also the next one is -- I just -- I really don't 17 need to -- I don't believe we need to spend more time on the 18 danger, unless the Court has questions on that, because I
19 don't believe that you're looking at an individual here who 20 is violent as long as he's aware of what's going on.

21 Also another circumstance, I would bring up one
22 other thing there, is family. His sons are on their way
23 here. They should be here within the half hour. If there
24 is any issue regarding someone to watch or guide or help him
25 with recognition and with whom he trusts, they are on their

1 way here. This is according to discussions with us as well
2 as probation today.

3 I do not believe that his access to passports
4 increases risk of flight. The high majority of these are
5 women. The passports have all been seized. He does not
6 have any record of coming and going and coming and going and 7 coming and going that has been represented today. There is 8 no other record of any other type of conduct that would 9 suggest passport usage. And regardless of all of that, they
10 are taken from him. They are gone.

11 And the money amount was about 6,000 bucks. We're
12 not talking a lot of money. Traveling from the Ukraine
13 doesn't seem unreasonable to have that amount of money.

14 Bribery, I just threw that out flippantly, but 15 it's probably not a flippant argument. I wouldn't be
16 surprised if that's how they deal with things in the Ukraine
17 on a daily basis and the way they handle things. I do
18 believe that that's of some significance to the Court, and I
19 don't deny that he attempted to do that. I do believe there
20 are conditions and recommendations that can be made that
21 could resolve that and to make sure that he is comfortable.

22 Your Honor, I believe his mental health condition,
23 I believe there are concerns over what happened, that there
24 was a mental departure that happened on the airplane. I
25 think that it would assist not only the government, not only

1 defense, but it would assist the Court to allow
2 Mr. Baranovich to be with his family and to allow them to
3 care for him. They have no problem with him when he's been
4 home. Nothing like this has occurred. They have money.
5 They are capable of transporting him here. They are capable
6 of watching over him. He has, as has been testified to, he
7 has a house where he resides, a family that supports him,
8 and they are actually on their way here to be able to 9 assist, and they can get him here.

10 We believe that these circumstances show that it's 11 not only in the best interest of everybody, but 12 Mr. Baranovich's mental health interest that he be allowed
13 to stay out and this matter -- so this matter can be 14 resolved without further exacerbating what is right now an 15 obviously tragic incident that has occurred.

16 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Hunt.

17 Mr. Kennedy.

18 MR. KENNEDY: Just a couple of quick points, Your
19 Honor, for clarification.

20 First, I think it bears noting that Mr. Baranovich
21 certainly did know Special Agent Smilie and had actually 22 been talking with him for over an hour at the point where 23 those passports were found and he was made aware of that,
24 and that's when he became quite agitated. So it wasn't a
25 matter of comfort, not comfort. Frankly, what it was, it

1 was something was found that he really did not want to be
2 found and that he thought was a very, very big problem for 3 him.

4 And that's the point -- that's really the point of 5 the passports is that there is something with regard to
6 those passports that the defendant thinks is much more
7 serious than the charges that he's actually facing at this
8 point, and that he was willing to take that risk and 9 basically freaked out when that was found. And that is what 10 we think -- in addition to the charges he's facing here, he 11 does not want to face any consequences with regard to that.

12 And he is clearly comfortable in the Ukraine. He 13 just came back from spending 50 days there. So he would 14 have no problem returning to that life where he has family.

15 THE COURT: Thank you.

16 Gentlemen, if you would give me just a few
17 minutes, I'm going to review a couple of things.

18 MR. HUNT: May I make one comment, Your Honor?

19 THE COURT: Yes, of course, Mr. Hunt.

20 MR. HUNT: As far as your analysis goes, Your 21 Honor, I don't believe that Mr. Baranovich's reaction to 22 opening a bag and speculation that occurred when he looked 23 at the passports is relevant to the two factors that the 24 Court is asked to look at today. It's part of an incident
25 that occurred. It may or may not be true, I'm not disputing

1 that, but the fact is I don't know how that would affect his
2 threat of danger or his risk of flight. That's it.

3 THE COURT: Thank you, gentlemen. Very capably
4 argued. Can you give me ten minutes? I will be back to 5 issue my decision.

6 (Recess)

7 MR. HUNT: (Inaudible) I wanted them to represent
8 that they haven't in their lives seen an incident like this
9 in their father.

10 THE COURT: Mr. Kennedy, will you be willing to 11 accept that proffer?

12 MR. KENNEDY: That's fine, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Thank you, gentlemen. I appreciate
14 your patience as I've tried to struggle with the decision,
15 and I do say struggle because I see clear merit to both 16 arguments.

17 The standard is a difficult one and there are 18 competing facts that I think both work for and against the 19 government's position and for and against the defendant's
20 claims. So I've gone back to take a look at the statute and 21 I think that's where I would like to start.

22 Of course, we start with the nature and the 23 circumstances of the offense charged. The complaint, which
24 is all we have right now, speaks for itself. It hasn't yet
25 been presented to the grand jury. My understanding is that

1 will take place in a couple of weeks.

2 Is that right, Mr. Kennedy?

3 MR. KENNEDY: Yes, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: So I give that what weight I can.

5 I don't know if there was much contested claims
6 regarding what is alleged in the complaint, but the 7 complaint does allege a very serious set of circumstances.

8 Mr. Hunt, you've kind of suggested that there may 9 be something else going on here. As I look through the 10 complaint and as I try to balance that versus what you've
11 talked about, that this appears to be an anomaly, there
12 definitely is some concern that's raised in my mind as to 13 whether there is an issue that maybe needs to be addressed,
14 substance or mental health based. I'm going to get to that 15 in a second. But the nature and circumstances of the 16 offense charged are quite serious.

17 The weight of the evidence against a person I
18 think is fairly significant. Neither party really addressed
19 that in great deal, so I'm taking the complaint kind of for 20 what it is. Those I think do cut against the defendant in a
21 significant way. It's not an insurmountable way, but then I
22 turn to the history and characteristics of the defendant.

23 Let's start with his character first. Mr. Hunt,
24 you've suggested that this does not appear to be in
25 character, at least as it relates to the violent episode. I

1 would agree with you. The character, as it's been
2 represented to me, this seems out of character. It's hard
3 for me, based on an absence of criminal record, to find
4 something that this is a pattern rather than an anomaly, at
5 least as it relates to dangerousness.

6           We have the sons here who would proffer, the 7 proffer was accepted, that he's not a violent person by 8 definition. I was persuaded in significant part by your 9 argument that, look, if this is who he is, we would see
10 something, we would see a criminal record.

11           I admit I don't have much detail regarding the 12 dates of the alleged criminal offenses in Ukraine, but even 13 then only one of them relates to a violent propensity. I'm 14 assuming, although it may be without some support, that that 15 took place, of course, not during the last trip. I believe
16 that would have been stated if that took place. I believe
17 that took place before he came to the United States as a
18 refugee, unless I'm mistaken.

19           MR. KENNEDY: That's my understanding, Your Honor.

20           THE COURT: So we've got an incident in the 21 Ukraine from 14 or 15 years ago, and then this incident, and 22 nothing intervening. So, Mr. Hunt, I think on the issue of 23 dangerousness, I'm inclined to agree, but it's not without 24 some reservations because the incident here is exceptionally
25 dangerous. It's not with the intent to harm anybody

1 necessarily. The complaint doesn't suggest that. The
2 complaint just suggests that maybe something else is going
3 on, but I don't think it related to any sinister intent to 4 harm. So I'm persuaded by your point of view that there is
5 not a dangerous consideration. The circumstances are
6 dangerous, but I don't think his history and characteristics
7 are dangerous.

8 Let me go to the second issue of physical and
9 mental condition. I do have some significant concerns here.
10 It is my opinion that a mental health assessment should be 11 ordered. I'm going to get to that in just a second, but 12 it's hard for me to account for what's gone on here. If it
13 is an anomaly for him to act in the way that he has, I'm 14 lacking the origins for that conduct. I'm having a hard
15 time understanding what would prompt this type of behavior,
16 particularly as was brought out during testimony that even
17 he himself has suggested that he didn't overly consume
18 alcohol from Boston to Salt Lake. I don't know about the 19 legs from Amsterdam to Boston. But it doesn't appear that 20 there was a whole lot going on. Perhaps two beers in Boston
21 and then some water and a glass of wine on the way from 22 Boston to Salt Lake, if I understood the testimony right.
23 That doesn't strike me as something that is a
24 disproportionate use of alcohol that would suddenly trigger
25 this type of incident.

1           I think something else is going on and I do have
2 some concerns because if the catalyst -- if this was a
3 catalyst for some what appears to me to be bizarre and maybe
4 out of character conduct when he gets in fighting stances,
5 when he's not cooperative, when he's not compliant.

6           Mr. Hunt, you mentioned something that I think is
7 entitled to some weight, that is the circumstance by itself
8 is frightening. He is in a city he doesn't know. He's in a
9 problem that he's not previously had. On the other hand,
10 Mr. Kennedy mentioned that his reactions aren't just 11 circumstance based on unfamiliarity. They are also based on 12 what the agent was discovering. So I think there's some 13 truth to both there.

14           Family ties, there clearly are some family ties.
15 I think that cuts in the respondent's favor.

16           Employment is not exactly verified. I take it for 17 what it's worth in the pretrial services report. There do
18 appear to be some financial resources. He has some 19 residence in the community, albeit not in Utah. Ordinarily,
20 Mr. Hunt, I don't think residence outside the District of 21 Utah is overly concerning. But the residence prong does
22 concern me here for other reasons, and that is what appears
23 to be -- at least it wasn't contested -- that his original
24 obtaining a permanent residence status in the United States
25 was based on a false premise. That is the false claim of

1 Pentecostal Baptist which gave rise to the refugee status
2 which got him to the United States.

3           If I understand what happened correctly, he then
4 became a permanent resident based on that same false
5 premise. Whether the government would now move to rescind
6 permanent resident status based on the false representation
7 that he may have made, that's an issue that nobody really
8 brought up, but I think that concerns me from my point of 9 view that his residence may be subject to some shaky
10 foundation, in my opinion right now.

11           Past conduct I think cuts in his favor, Mr. Hunt,
12 as you have suggested. History relating to drug or alcohol
13 abuse, it doesn't appear that there is much. I am aware of 14 the claims he made about being perpetually drunk over the 15 past several days in Ukraine, but it doesn't seem that 16 that's his history in the United States. If there was, I
17 suspect that we would see it manifested in a criminal record
18 of some kind, and we just don't have that. I think it would 19 also show up because if I understand his employment right,
20 it relates to driving trucks and things. I think it would 21 have manifested itself in some way.

22           Consequently, we don't have a record concerning
23 appearance at court proceedings. That being said, I'm at a
24 little bit of a disadvantage regarding the criminal history
25 in the Ukraine, which he brought forth on his own. Again, I

1 assume that's from some time ago.

2 Let's go, then, to some of the circumstances here
3 in the case. We have discussed briefly the money. I am
4 with you a little bit here, Mr. Hunt. I'm not sure what
5 weight to account for the money and the passports. All I
6 know is that they have given me pause. And maybe -- maybe
7 that's for some non-sinister reason, I don't know. I don't
8 know what the explanation would be for having the numerous
9 passports, the majority of which belong to women, in his 10 possession and why he would get angry at the discovery of 11 them.

12 Admittedly, the government has to carry the burden
13 of proof here. They have presented a circumstance that's 14 troubling to me. I just don't have any information from the 15 defendant that would explain why he possessed those. You've 16 mentioned that they may not necessarily go to risk of flight
17 or danger. I am not so sure. In my mind, it suggests that 18 he has access to travel documents that the ordinary person
19 may not. And absent greater clarification from the 20 defendant, who has no burden here, but he hasn't provided an 21 explanation which leads me to believe that I should give 22 that far lesser weight than I otherwise would.

23 There is the additional issue of paying or
24 offering to pay the bribe, which I think you've conceded,
25 Mr. Hunt, should give someone pause. It certainly does me.

1 There may be some customary use of bribery in Ukraine. I'm
2 not suggesting that's not plausible, but at the same time I
3 think it does go to risk of flight here. If the defendant
4 in a different circumstance is willing to offer money for 5 his release, that does, in my opinion, impact risk of 6 flight, especially in light of his residence in the United
7 States of nearly 15, or 16 years.

8 I admit, on the other hand, that he doesn't appear
9 to have been arrested before. But residence in a country
10 for 16 years and then offering a bribe twice to people for 11 release concerns me significantly as it relates to risk of 12 flight.

13 Gentlemen, based on the evidence that's been
14 provided in its totality, I do not believe that there are 15 conditions that will reasonably assure his appearance. In 16 large part, it stems from the circumstances I've described,
17 but it also stems from the things we don't know. I don't 18 know if there is a mental health issue. I don't know if 19 that would implicate or help me understand or would explain
20 why he acted the way he did and whether he would be likely
21 to appear at court. My order today is I'm going to detain
22 him as a risk of flight and at the same time I'm going to 23 order a mental health assessment. I think it can shed some 24 light.

25 I'm willing to revisit the detention issue after

1 seeing that mental health assessment. It may give me
2 something that I don't otherwise have. But at this point I
3 am not comfortable, I believe the government has met its
4 burden, and the defendant will be ordered detained pending
5 trial.

6 Mr. Kennedy, anything else from the government?

7 MR. KENNEDY: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Hunt?

9 MR. HUNT: Do we -- so if we bring other -- you
10 would like -- before we are allowed to come back before the 11 Court, you would like an assessment?

12 THE COURT: I'm going to permit this as a
13 continuing application for lack of a better term. I know it
14 may not be a new change in circumstance. I really think it
15 would shed greater light. I am not willing to commit to 16 changing my decision, but I do think there's enough concern
17 here that I would be willing to revisit this without having 18 to find a changed circumstance if the mental health
19 assessment warrants it.

20 I probably didn't say that very artfully, but is 21 that clear?

22 MR. HUNT: No, I'm clear.

23 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Hunt.

24 The hearing is concluded.

25 (Whereupon, the proceeding was concluded.)
